

- I. ONE THING—The One Thing that I'd like to take away from today's class and believe God to accomplish in my life is:

II. APPLICATIONS

- a. Think about your One Thing from this week's lesson. Ask yourself and ask the Lord what it would look like for this truth to be integrated into your life. Record your thoughts here:
- b. Think about how God used the faithful lives of Ruth and Boaz to bring restoration to one family. Now consider that these 2 individuals contributed to God's greater plan for His people to "bud and blossom and fill all the world with fruit." In light of this testimony, ask the Lord what He would have you do to be a Life Giver in your family and in His Kingdom. Write your insights here:
- c. Take some time to review your notes, worksheets, and journal entries from the book of Ruth. Make a brief list of the principles and insights that have had the greatest impact on your life:

d. Where can you see God's redemptive work taking place? Begin with ways that you have been strengthened or changed during the course of this study. Also consider situations and relationships that you have brought before the Lord in prayer. Record your observations here:

e. Think about what have you learned about God's heart intent and character through the book of Ruth. Briefly list the concepts here:

- Based on this deeper understanding of the Lord, do you see or expect any change the way you view your circumstances?

- Name some specific ways that this knowledge can help you in responding to future loss or disappointments:

f. Come to our last class meeting on April 30 ready to share what you've learned and experienced.
