35. Ps 103:2 KJV-- Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits
36. Ps 143:5 MSG-- I remembered the old days, went over all you've done, pondered the ways you've worked
37. Ps 77:14 MSG-- You're the God who makes things happen; you showed everyone what you can do
38. 1 Cor 12:6 NKJV-- There are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all.
39. Phil 4:19 NLT-- And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus.
40. Ps 78:2-4 MSG-- I'm chewing on the morsel of a proverb; I'll let you in on the sweet old truths, stories we heard from our fathers, counsel we learned at our mother's knee. We're not keeping this to ourselves, we're passing it along to the next generation - God's fame and fortune, the marvelous things he has done.
41. Josh 23:14 MSG-- Know this with all your heart, with everything in you, that not one detail has failed of all the good things God, your God, promised you. It has all happened. Nothing's left undone - not so much as a word.
42. Josh 4:1-7 NLT-- When all the people were safely across the river, the LORD said to Joshua, 2 "Now choose twelve men, one from each tribe. 3 Tell the men to take twelve stones from where the priests are standing in the middle of the Jordan and pile them up at the place where you camp tonight." 4 So Joshua called together the twelve men 5 and told them, "Go into the middle of the Jordan, in front of the Ark of the LORD your God. Each of you must pick up one stone and carry it out on your shoulder – twelve stones in all, one for each of the twelve tribes. 6 We will use these stones to build a memorial. In the future, your children will ask, 'What do these stones mean to you?' 7 Then you can tell them, 'They remind us that the Jordan River stopped flowing when the Ark of the LORD's covenant went across.' These stones will stand as a permanent memorial among the people of Israel."
